

Peace is not merely a distant goal that we seek, but a means by which we arrive at that goal. (Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.)

“Off the beaten track”

Historic Benefit Walk for the London Peace Pathway

Saturday 24TH September 2011

11.00 am- 2.00pm approx.
St Pancras Old church

After the amazing May walk we are planning to set off again on an inspiring walk. Come and join us to explore the rich history of the people “who have made a difference” here in London.

The walk will start at St. Pancras Old Church, taking in the gems of the Hardy tree and Baroness Burdett-Coutt’s Sundial. We will visit the Wells Chapel which will house a World Peace Flame, visit the Quakers’ Friends Meeting House to connect with William Penn and finish with a visit to the new statue of Tagore.

Bring a packed lunch and remember to wear suitable footwear. There will be a tea /lunch break at the Quaker house. Information and sponsor forms:
